

DANAHER CORPORATION COMPLETES OFFER FOR TROJAN TECHNOLOGIES INC.

PRNewswire-FirstCall

WASHINGTON

Danaher Corporation announced today that its indirect wholly-owned subsidiary, Helen Nova Scotia Unlimited Liability Company ("Offeror"), has acquired 94.3% of the outstanding common shares (on a fully diluted basis) of Trojan Technologies Inc. under its previously announced offer dated October 1, 2004.

The Offeror currently intends to acquire any common shares of Trojan that remain untendered through the compulsory acquisition provisions of the Ontario Business Corporations Act.

Danaher Corporation is a leading manufacturer of Process/Environmental Controls and Tools and Components. (<http://www.danaher.com/>)

Statements in this release that are not strictly historical may be "forward-looking" statements. These forward-looking statements include statements about future business operations, financial performance, market conditions and the integration of the Trojan and Danaher businesses. Such forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties as set forth in the Danaher's filings with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.
