WASHINGTON, Feb. 25, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Danaher Corporation (NYSE: DHR) ("Danaher") announced today that it has commenced concurrent offerings of $1.35 billion of shares of common stock and $1.35 billion of shares of Series A Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, subject to market and other conditions (the offerings). Danaher expects to grant the underwriters separate 30-day options to purchase up to an additional $135 million of shares of common stock, and up to an additional $135 million of shares of mandatory convertible preferred stock.

Danaher intends to use the net proceeds from the offerings to fund a portion of the purchase price of its pending acquisition of the Biopharma business of GE Life Sciences and to pay related fees and expenses. The offerings are being made by means of separate preliminary prospectus supplements and are not contingent upon each other, nor are they contingent upon the consummation of the acquisition. If for any reason the acquisition is not completed, Danaher expects to use the net proceeds from the offerings for general corporate purposes.

Barclays and Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC are acting as representatives of the underwriters and joint book-running managers for the offerings. Credit Suisse and HSBC are also serving as joint book-running managers for the offerings.

Each share of mandatory convertible preferred stock is expected to have a liquidation preference of $1,000 per share. Unless earlier converted or redeemed, each share of mandatory convertible preferred stock will automatically convert into a variable number of shares of Danaher's common stock on the mandatory conversion date, which is scheduled to occur on April 15, 2022. The conversion terms, dividend rate and the other terms of the mandatory convertible preferred stock will be determined at the time of pricing.

The offerings are being made pursuant to an effective shelf registration statement on file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Each offering will be made only by means of a prospectus supplement relating to such offering and the accompanying base prospectus. An electronic copy of each preliminary prospectus supplement, together with the accompanying base prospectus, is available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. Alternatively, copies of each preliminary prospectus supplement and
