WASHINGTON, May 8, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Danaher Corporation (NYSE:DHR) ("Danaher") announced today that it has priced concurrent offerings of 9,509,203 shares of common stock at a price to the public of $163.00 per share and 1,550,000 shares of 5.00% Series B Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock at a price to the public of $1,000 per share (the offerings). The underwriters have separate 30-day options to purchase up to an additional 1,426,379 shares of common stock, and up to an additional 167,500 shares of mandatory convertible preferred stock. The offerings are scheduled to be completed on May 12, 2020, subject to customary closing conditions.

The net proceeds from the common stock offering and the mandatory convertible preferred stock offering will be approximately $1.50 billion and $1.51 billion, respectively (or approximately $1.73 billion and $1.67 billion, respectively, if the underwriters exercise their options in full), in each case after deducting issuance costs and discounts.

Danaher anticipates using the net proceeds for general corporate purposes, which may include, without limitation and in our sole discretion, funding potential future acquisitions and investments, working capital, capital expenditures, investments in or loans to our subsidiaries, refinancing of outstanding indebtedness, refinancing of outstanding capital securities, share repurchases (including, but not limited to, repurchases of our common stock), dividends and satisfaction of other obligations.

Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC, J.P. Morgan, Citigroup and Evercore are acting as representatives of the underwriters and joint book-running managers for the offerings. Credit Suisse is also serving as a joint book-running manager for the offerings.

Unless earlier converted or redeemed, each share of mandatory convertible preferred stock will automatically convert on April 15, 2023 (subject to postponement for certain market disruption or other events) into between 5.0081 and 6.1349 shares of Danaher's common stock, subject to certain customary anti-dilution adjustments.
Dividends on the mandatory convertible preferred stock will be payable on a cumulative basis when, as and if declared by Danaher's board of directors, at an annual rate of 5.00% on the liquidation preference of $1,000 per share. If declared, these dividends will be paid in cash or, subject to certain limitations, in shares of Danaher's common stock or in a combination of cash and shares of Danaher's common stock, at Danaher's election, on January 15, April 15, July 15 and October 15 of each year, commencing on July 15, 2020 and continuing to, and including, April 15, 2023.

The offerings are being made pursuant to an effective shelf registration statement on file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Each offering is being made only by means of a prospectus supplement relating to such offering and the accompanying base prospectus. An electronic copy of each prospectus supplement, together with the accompanying prospectus, will be available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.
